BACK TO CHILI.

The Warship Will Be Taken Back to Valparaiso.

CALLAO, Peru, Sept. 10. The Chilian transport Grumao arrived here this morning. She has aboard a number of the Junta's soldiers. The object of her coming here was to take the arrived transport imperiale and the torpedo boat Condell back to Valparaiso. The Imperiale and the Condell left Coquimbo, Chili, on last Saturday night. A new crew was put aboard the Almirante Lynch, which was sent in pursuit of them. She returned to Valparaiso without getting sight of them. Notice of the surrender of the Imperiale and Condell was conveyed from here on September 3 to the Chilian authorities.

CHILIAN REFUGEES.

They Are Landed by the Baltimore in Peruvian Territory.

MOLLENDO, Peru, Sept. 10.—The United States steamship Baltimore arrived at this port today. She had on board eighteen refugees, including Senor Banado, Balmaceda's minister of the interior; Domingo Godoy, late minister of state and foreign affairs, and Pertiz Montt. The family of Admiral Oscar Viel, late intendente of Valparaiso, who is now a refugee on board German man-of-war Sophie, also were aboard. Permission was granted by the Peruvian authorities to land the refugees. This was accordingly done. The Baltimore will return to Valparaiso.

THE ITATA DISABLED.

Crippled by the Absence of Part of Her Machinery.

SAN DIEGO, Cala., Sept. 10.—Captain Mamizchen has not received official notice of the intention to relieve the Itata. When orders come releasing the vessel she will go to San Francisco immediately for needed repairs, cleaning, etc., and then take a cargo of provisions for Chili. The machinery is still disabled by the removal of important pieces by Marshal Gard, who stored them in the United States barracks in this city.

Are Undecided.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Private advices received in this city to-day from Chili state that the new congress is debating the expediency of taking the paper money issued by Balmaceda at its face value.

THE DARDANELLES.

Eleven Shipments of War Ships Have Passed Through This Year.

LONDON, Sept. 10. A dispatch to the Standard from Batoum says: Eleven shipments of war stores have traversed the Dardanelles this year. All volunteer cruisers have taken heavy guns for fortifying Vladivostock. Several foreign vessels have been chartered to carry stores and munition. Turkey's yielding to Russia shows that the treaty of Paris is a dead letter so far as Russia is concerned, as a strong Black sea fleet is being rapidly collected. The triumph of the Russian ambassador at Constantinople shows plainly how Russia is paving the way to achieve her long cherished ambition the possession of Constantinople.

Russia's Bad Fix.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10. In the province of Orel bands of peasants are roving over the highways attacking convoys of grain and food, even where the convoys are escorted by soldiers. Fights are of frequent occurrence and many persons have been killed. Crime is rampant owing to a desire to escape starvation by imprisonment. The jails are crowded with prisoners.

The McKinley Bill.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—Speaking of the recent investigation into the effects of the McKinley bill on English trade the Pall Mall Gazette says: "There is some satisfaction to learn that the German industries are injured no more than the English. Even under a ruinous protective tariff workmanship and quality will tell at times."

Riot in Heligoland.

BERLIN, Sept. 10. Dispatches received announce that a serious fracas occurred at a Heligoland casino yesterday between a party of German Marines and the islanders. Eight of the participants were wounded. In consequence of the riot the marines are now forbidden to land on the island.

Still a Prisoner.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 10. Kiamil Pasha is still a close prisoner in his palace. A commission, consisting of Riza Pasha, Raghib Bey and Abdoul Sonda, has been appointed to investigate the charge against Kiamil Pasha of plotting to dethrone the sultan.

Bought by Speculators.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10. Complaints come from various provinces that wheat reserves which would have averted distress have been bought up by speculating dealers.

Increase in the Estimates.

BERLIN, Sept. 10. The Tageblatt says that an increase of the German army and estimates for the coming year is certainty.

Special to The News.

The newly elected officers were installed and Denver selected as the next place of meeting, the time to be during the week of the Knights Templar conclave. A NEBRASKA WRECK.

One Man So Badly Injured that He Died Soon After the Accident.

Several Others Badly Hurt and People Without Number Frightened.

A Train Dispatcher Forgets an Important Order Until Too Late—The Scene.

Special to The News.

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 10.—The first reports sent out of the collision on the Union Pacific, one and a half miles north of Pickerell and ten miles north of here, at 8:40 this morning, rather overdoes the fact of the accident. The casualties consist of:

FRED ORTMAN and VICTOR HAYNES, each a leg broken and internal injuries.

CONDUCTOR GEORGE BAIRD of the southbound train, hurt about the head.

The slightly injured are:

EXPRESS MESSENGER H. T. MCKINNEY, hurt about the head.

BRAKEMAN G. F. HARDING, hurt about the body.

On the special northbound train several of the passengers of the train received slight injuries. Excepting Conductor Baird all the injured were on the special. Haynes was terribly hurt and died from the effect of his injuries about 1 o'clock this afternoon. Ortman's leg will have to be amputated. Both engines are a complete wreck, and it was necessary to build a temporary track around the wreck in order to permit the passage of the regular trains. The mail car and contents of the southbound train was demolished, the tender of the engine being telescoped back into the mail car.

ENGINE MEN JUMPED.

The engineers and firemen, of both trains jumped after reversing their engines. Fortunately the special which carried eight coaches was going at a twelve mile an hour speed, leaving Pickerell, on account of a drove of hogs being on the track, otherwise the collision would have occurred on the curve, a short distance north, and the loss of life could not have been otherwise than very heavy. As it was neither of the trains left the track.

The injured were all brought to this city and are being cared for by the railroad authorities. The cause of the collision was the failure of the Beatrice operator to give orders to Conductor O'Byrne of the special, the operator forgetting them until after the special had left Pickerell. When the news was first received in this city a veritable panic ensued.

ANXIOUS PEOPLE.

Fully 100 Beatrice people were on the train, and the anxiety to know of their fate was intense. Every surgeon of the city who could be found was sent to the scene of the wreck in anticipation of a holocaust. Hundreds of people who were unable to go up on the wrecking train, which carried the physicians, went by private conveyances.

The scene at the wreck was remarkable. The two engines were fairly wedged together at the boiler heads. The pilots and headlights were completely demolished and the smoke stacks forced back nearly to the bell. The tenders were telescoped by the engines, and the baggage cars in turn were telescoped by the tenders. The baggage cars were forced into and partly upon the smokers. The remaining coaches were uninjured. The trainmen referred to, who suffered injury, received their injuries by jumping. It is thought to-night that Conductor Baird is more seriously injured than at first supposed. He is at the Paddock hotel in charge of the railroad surgeons. The passengers were transferred around the wreck and taken to their respective destinations early this afternoon.

A TIGHT SQUEEZE.

W. Z. Nutting Has His Shoulder Blade Broken.

Special to The News.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Sept. 10.—W. Z. Nutting, a conductor on the Rio Grande road, was caught between a projecting timber on a car he was trying to couple and the air-drum of an engine, breaking his shoulder blade and bruising him otherwise. The fact that the coupling missed saved his life, but he was sent to the hospital at Salida, badly injured.

The man Riley, who was slashed with a razor two days ago, has been sent to St. Luke's hospital in a critical condition, blood poisoning threatening. His assailant is in jail, awaiting the result of his injuries.

The captain and crew were thrown into the water, but managed to cut the boats adrift and made their way to the Mexican coast, being four days enroute. Reaching Point Taillow they fed on green cocoanuts for three days, those being the only food or drink they had from the time of the wreck. They were then rescued by fishermen and taken to Ruitan, whence Captain Flatada came to this port.

HOLYOKE, Colo., Sept. 10. The alliance independent judicial convention was held here to-day, placing in nomination James Glynn of Phillips county for district judge, and Quit Brown of Yuma county for district attorney. WARNING THE PICKERS.

Colored President of the Alliance Asks Them to Be Reasonable

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 10.—Andrew G. Carothers, for years at the head of the colored alliance of the South, is out in an open letter to his people warning against the Hun phrey's scheme of demanding exorbitant prices for cotton picking. He denounces the author of this scheme as well as the plan itself, and urges the negroes to live in harmony with the white farmers, alleging the closely interwoven interests of the two classes and the danger of stirring up strife, as a further incentive to peace and quiet in all particulars. He says if cotton were bringing 10 or 11 cents more for picking could in justice be demanded, but that at the present rates no man can pay an advance. Carothers is a most influential man and his warning will have great weight.

The property attached is mostly real estate in the eastern part of the city, and was to be used for terminals.

LEADVILLE WINS.

Four Times Do They Carry Off First Drill Honors.

Special to The News.

ASPEN, Colo., Sept. 10.—Long before 3 o'clock this afternoon every available seat in the grand stand and bleachers was filled with expectant people, fully 3,000 people witnessing the drill. Promptly at 3 o'clock Mount Massive division of Leadville made its appearance and was greeted with round after round of applause. Every man in the division presented an appearance of scrupulous neatness. Adjutant McCoy of Pueblo, Captain Smith of Aspen and P. J. Carraher of Aspen were the judges. Their judgment seems to have given absolute satisfaction. A few minutes after 3 o'clock Mount Massive division took its position, immediately beginning the drill. From the time that Captain Brown gave his first order it was very apparent that his men had both confidence in him and themselves, by stepping promptly and firmly out, finishing the card in just ten minutes. The order "break ranks" was a signal for applause, which was simply deafening. Aspen division was next called. The boys did phenomenally well, considering their having had but two weeks practice. Time, 15 minutes. Following Aspen came the Greeley division, who everybody knew "was in it." Their work was excellent, showing careful attention to business. When this division had finished opinions were greatly divided as to the winners, time 13. The Silver Dollar drum corps of Leadville then gave the finest silent drill ever seen, all Aspen believe, west of the Missouri river. Following this Louis Wemberger of the awarding committee ascended to the stand. At once everything was quiet. When he announced that Mount Massive division had carried off first prize, a scene was presented which would make a stock exchange appear like a Sunday school class. Greeley took second and Aspen third prize. Universal good feeling prevailed and the speeches of acceptance by Captains Brown and Phil O'Farrell readily showed the feeling of every knight there.

To-morrow morning an excursion train will leave on the Midland for Glenwood, carrying 1,000 Knights and friends. The return will be made via the Rio Grande.

The four-time prize winners are: George B. Brown, captain; T. H. Lee, first lieutenant; William Martin, second lieutenant; L. J. Cummings, first sergeant; J. C. Christman, second lieutenant; Gus Klages, J. H. Cragg, O. Bostwick, S. McKusick, William Loomis, T. J. Cash, J. E. Foutz, William Kissel, W. G. Numerick, Tom Fergus and P. Mahan.

NAVAL ORDERS.

Secretary Tracey Makes Several Changes in the Atlantic Squadrons.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Secretary Tracey has made further changes in the squadrons on the North Atlantic coast. An order issued this morning transferred the Boston and Atlanta from Admiral Walker's squadron of evolution to Admiral Gerhardy's command the North Atlantic squadron. This leaves the two squadrons equally balanced in the number of vessels. Admiral Walker has the Chicago, Newark, Atlanta and Bennington, and Admiral Gerhardy has the Philadelphia, Boston, Concord and Kearsarge. The Enterprise, which was under Admiral Gerhardy's command, is to go to Annapolis as a practice ship for the cadets. Further changes are likely to follow. Admiral Benham, lately commandant at the Mare Island navy yard, has been assigned to the command of the South Atlantic station to succeed Admiral McCann, who is president of the retiring board and board of promotion. On that station the force consists of two old hulks—the Tallapoosa and the Essex—neither of which is suitable for a flagships so it is probable that one of the new cruisers, perhaps the Newark, now in the squadron of evolution, will be sent to South America to serve as Admiral Benham's flagship.

DECISION REVERSED.

All Filings on Oregon Swamp Lands To Be Cancelled.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—In the matter of Oregon swamp lands, list No. 5, before the interior department on certiorari, Secretary Noble has reversed the action of the commissioner of the general land office permitting contests and hearings therein, and directs that all entries and filings on the land in controversy be cancelled. He further directs the commissioner to prepare clear lists of said lands that they may be approved for patent. The application of L. B. Applegate, as assignee of the state for a reexamination of certain lands is denied. About 58,000 acres are said to be directly involved in this decision, which is in favor of purchasers from this state.

LEAD IN MEXICAN ORES.

The Required Value of Lead Per Pound Raised Half a Cent.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The treasury department has informed the surveyor of customs at Omaha that the circular of July 17 last, amending the regulations of July 17, 1889, relative to the value of lead in Mexican ores, is changed from 1 cent per pound to 1½ cents per pound, the deduction to be made from the latest known New York price of bar lead in determining the relative value of the lead component in importations of such ores at Omaha. The recommendation of this allowance partook of an advisory character, and was not intended to be mandatory.

INSPECTION WANTED

By Boston, South Omaha and Kansas City Pork Packers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Secretary Rusk has received application from packers at Boston, South Omaha, Neb., and Kansas City for a microscopical investigation of their pork, and have arranged a schedule of the number to be inspected at each of these places for export. The inspection for Boston will be started this week and at the other points immediately thereafter. The inspection at Milwaukee and Chicago will be increased as far as possible.

YELLOWSTONE PARK.

Proclamation Defining the Boundaries of the Forests Reserved.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—On March 30 last the president issued a proclamation in regard to reserving the forest-bearing lands in the Yellowstone park region. Some question has arisen as to the boundaries proclaimed being sufficiently definite to cover the forests intended to be preserved. Therefore another presidential proclamation was issued to-day, defining the boundaries of the tract in Wyoming.

Four and One-Half Per Cent Bonds.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. The 4½ per cent bonds received at the treasury department for continuance at 2 per cent amounted to $125,500, making the total to date $24,223,350. The 4½ per cents received at the department for redemption amounted to $188,200, making the total thus far redeemed $10,778,850.

Rain Experimenters Arrive.

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 10.—John W. Ellis and some of his party of rain experimenters arrived here to-day from Midland. The balance of the party and all the apparatus will arrive to-morrow. General Dyrenfurth will arrive in a few days from Washington, and the first experiment will take place on or about September 17.

One of the Very Finest.

Captain A. A. Cross of the New York City police force paid a call to Chiefs Farley and Howe and Captain Cook last night. He is passing through on his way to Glenwood Springs, Salt Lake City and other points, enjoying a well earned vacation. The captain is a robust looking officer, and he has a keen pair of eyes about him which mean business. He is a profound admirer of Inspector Byrnes and thinks that "Frenchy" got only what he deserved, although he hardly thinks that he is the original Whitechapel "Jack the Ripper." Captain Cross is busy shaking hands with old and new friends.

WAR AT THE BEACH.

Elitch Gardens' Managers Attempt to Steal a March On the Animals at Manhattan.

Fifty Detectives Are Held at Bay By Six Men Armed With Winchester Rifles.

Governor Routt Called Upon to Interfere and Call Out the National Guard.

There was a watch at Manhattan beach last night. There has been a subdued vigilance every night lately, and the watchers expressed themselves as being weary of being disappointed every night.

The half-slumbering vigil keepers were on the qui vivi, however, a little more sharply last night than usual. It appears that they feared that hired menials from Elitch's gardens were coming over from their lairs to attempt to spirit away the animals which are a big attraction at Manhattan beach. The Elitch garden people claim a right of ownership in the various ferocious beasts in convention assembled by virtue of some mortgage or other legal intricacy.

The war between the attaches of the two resorts broke out in somewhat definite form at 1 o'clock this morning. Developments showed that both forces had been active all night long and neither side had lost any time in getting ready for the struggle.

Private detective agencies were called on to furnish all the men available and at 4 o'clock busses and hacks quietly left the city for Manhattan beach, all being loaded with men who were engaged in a desperate errand.

It was alleged that the Elitch faction had planned an assault on Manhattan, which was to take place at daylight, after their rivals were supposed to have fallen asleep "on their arms."

THEY WERE FOOLED.

At 5:15 things looked very warlike at the beach and a break on the part of the Elitch detectives would have precipitated bloodshed with probable fatal results.

About fifty men said to be in the employ of Keith's detective agency drove quietly to the beach with a number of large wagons. They got in the rear portion of the grounds set apart for the menagerie, and thought that they would have no trouble removing the sleepy animals, shoving them in improvised cages and getting away with the captives before the men at Manhattan knew what was taking place.

But they were fooled.

"Halt what are you doing there?" came the query in quick, sharp tones from a most unexpected quarter.

Keith's men were non-plussed. They looked up and on top of the roof covering the menagerie were six men armed with Winchesters.

Moreover, the rifles were bearing directly on the crowd outside and the situation was unpleasant to say the least.

Jack Herwin led the Manhattan forces and he informed Elitch's men that further progress or disturbing action on their part would result in a few cases for the coroner.

Then both sides began to parley and the arguments were red hot and to the point. But the Winchesters still held the fort and the animals slept on.

The Elitch leaders said they had chattel mortgage papers to serve on the animals and other property at the beach, but the men who had the drop did not weaken.

Keith's men claimed that they were not armed.

It is said that the Elitch people desired to serve the papers on Colonel Darrow and Manager Sackett, but that these gentlemen had temporarily gone to some health resort not marked on the map.

The condition of affairs a Manhattan at 6 o'clock this morning was interesting and full of excitement and were trying their best to secure vantage ground.

The Manhatten men seemed to be aggressive and on top.

6:10 Kerwin has just made a speech from the roof of the building. He says he was put in charge to hold the premises and the occupants thereof and proposes to fulfil the contract. A number of men about the place are rather the worse for liquor, judging from the observations made by disinterested parties.

6:20 Manager Carleton of Elitch's gardens is on the grounds outside of the "dead line." He made the following statement to a NEWS reporter:

"The courts have awarded judgments to us allowing our company to foreclose the chattel mortgage papers and take possession of the animals. Sheriff Barton has absolutely refused to serve the papers or allow any of his deputies to do so. HITE A GOOD SHOT.

Remarkable Accuracy of His Aim in His Trouble With Coulter.

Special to The News.

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., Sept. 10.—The testimony at the coroner's inquest over the body of A. Coulter, who was killed by Cass Hite at Green River yesterday afternoon, developed the fact that there had been some previous difficulty between the men, and that when Coulter learned that Hite was in Green River he procured a Winchester and started to look for Hite to kill him. Ten witnesses swore that Coulter had told them he would shoot Hite on sight. Hite was told of the threats, and started to find Coulter, saying that if Coulter would talk with him he would convince him that he was wrong in the matter.

Hite found Coulter in a cabin and proposed a talk, to which the latter assented. During this discussion Mr. Coulter became excited and said:

"I said I would kill you on sight and I'm going to do it."

Catching up his Winchester he shot twice at Hite, one bullet making a flesh wound in the right shoulder. After Coulter fired, Hite drew a 45-caliber double-action revolver, and holding it against his hip, fired six shots, five entering Coulter's body and one striking a man named Drake, who was in line with the shooting, and probably mortally wounding him. After hearing this evidence, the jury examined the body and found that three of the shots had entered Coulter's heart in a space covered by a silver dollar and came out back of the shoulder. The verdict was then rendered that Coulter came to his death of gunshot wounds at the hands of Cass Hite, who had acted in self-defense.

Millionaire William E. Bailey Kidnapped in Seattle.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 10. This city was thrown into the wildest excitement by the kidnaping of William E. Bailey, the young millionaire, and R. B. Albertson, his attorney, this afternoon by a detective. Although the abduction was made at 5:30 o'clock, on Second street when it was crowded, no clue is obtainable and the whereabouts of the men is unknown. It is supposed the party is headed for Tacoma. Bailey is a young man whose father is a millionaire of Harrisburg, Penn. Young Bailey is owner of the Harrisburg block here, and president and director of several banks.

He is also proprietor of the Press Times. Albertson is second cousin of Albertson, the absconding cashier of the Fidelity Trust company, Tacoma, and it is supposed the detectives abducted him in order to get some information about the absconder. The detectives entered the two men into a close carriage, and it is supposed held a revolver to their heads until out of the city. When the cab was two miles out of town Bailey and Albertson were calling for help, but the detectives threatened to shoot several men who attempted to rescue them. Rumor has been circulated that Bailey is suspected of having securities stolen from the bank in his possession. A posse of police and deputy sheriffs are out in on horseback chasing the carriage, and a train with over 100 leading citizens has started for Tacoma.
